CubeIQ Announces Extension of Cooperation Agreement with struktur AG to include Spreed™.

Athens, GR, May 5, 2010 - CubeIQ Limited, an IT company provider of software solutions and systems for financial, banking and corporate institutions, today announces extension of cooperation agreement with struktur AG to include "Spreed™".

Spreed™ is a communication product developed by struktur AG. With spreed an organization can make:
- Web meetings - conferencing
- Telephone conferencing
- Telephone calls using VoIP technology and normal telephony for audio conferencing
- Web training

Spreed™ services and systems are available in three variants:
- Unified Web Meeting and Telephone Conferencing, worldwide, 24/7, service from conference centers that are available in Europe, USA, Japan, and Australia (Web Meeting & Conferencing provided as SaaS).
- Unified Conferencing software for corporations and service providers.
- Unified Communication systems – appliance - for corporations, institutions, service providers and telecommunication providers.

Spreed™ is a Web 2.0 Rich Internet Application (RIA). Using spreed is very intuitive. It just needs a web browser to held or participate a spreed meeting. Live video conferences can also be held by using a microphone and a webcam.

Spreed™ can be used with any PC running Windows™, OS-X (Mac) or Linux without the need to run or install any software. Worldwide, more than 120.000 users benefit from spreed Web 2.0 meetings and trainings.

Spreed™ features industrial strength high-security. All communication is secured by digital certificated issued by a trust center authority. The data is encrypted using modern state-of-the-art AES-256 encryption and 2048-bit secured key exchange.
