CubelQ Announces that irForms™ System Provision as SaaS

[EN] Athens, GR, January 20th, 2012 - CubelQ Limited, an IT company provider of software solutions and systems for financial, banking and corporate institutions, announces irForms™ system as SaaS.

Intelligent Remote Forms - irForms™ is a system based on Anoto™ digital pen and paper technology. Under SaaS configuration all required infrastructure together with irForms® system are installed in CubelQ premises while system management and operation is also provided as part of the service. The end user is supplied: (a) forms with Anoto™ background specially designed for the specific application, (b) mobile phones or use of the existing ones and (c) digital pens in the number of external users. The provision of irForms® system as SaaS targets SMEs with small numbers of users, 15 to 20 users, where the low initial investment cost and the operating cost directly proportional to the volume of data managed, give to the proposal essential competitive advantages.
