CubelQ Announces the Availability of the HID® Identity Verification Service

[EN] Athens, GR, June 24th, 2020 - CubelQ Limited, an IT company provider of software solutions and systems for financial, banking and corporate institutions, announces the availability of the HID® Identity Verification Service.

CubelQ pleased to announce the availability of the HID® Identity Verification Service. This latest SaaS offering completes CubelQ's HID® identification portfolio, which includes Advanced Authentication, the HID Risk Management Service, and one of the industry's largest portfolios of "Seamless to Secure" Multifactor Authenticators.

The HID® Identity Verification Service allows end users to quickly and securely provide an attestation to their identity without ever having to visit a physical location, such as a bank branch office. It simplifies the enrollment and verification of user identities, delivers a seamless and efficient digital onboarding process to customers, improves security, and enables KYC (Know Your Customer) compliance. The service includes valuable features such as:

- Liveness Check: motion detection and gesture recognition prevents identity fraud.
- Facial Comparison: 50-point biometric facial match.
- Document Verification: full suite of checks for tampering and forgery.
- Data Verification: database checks verify proof of address.
- Video Analysis: additional checks via video analysis of identity documents.
